The National Electrical Contractors Association (NECA) and the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (IBEW) jointly sponsor apprenticeship training programs that offer you the opportunity to earn wages and benefits while you learn the skills needed for a trade that can be both challenging and rewarding. You literally Earn-While-You-Learn. As an apprentice, you will have the chance to use your mind, as well as your physical skills, to complete work in a variety of settings with the constant opportunity to learn something new.

The Idaho Chapter of the National Electrical Contractors Association (NECA) and the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (IBEW) invites you to check out the opportunities available to you. Applications are accepted at the JATC office from (9:00 am – 4:00 pm Monday through Thursday).

This booklet is intended to help you make an informed decision about whether or not you would like to pursue an electrical apprenticeship. It will explain how the application process works. It has two primary parts:

- 1) Learning About Electrical Work provides information about the work done in different electrical work specialties and the abilities those specialties require. It contains an abilities checklist you can compare to determine whether or not electrical work suits you.
- 2) Applying For Apprenticeship provides information about qualification requirements and the application process.

What is it like to work in the electrical industry?

INSIDE WIREMAN

Inside Wireman install conduit, electrical wiring, fixtures and electrical apparatus inside commercial buildings and in a multitude of industrial settings. Major duties for Inside Wireman include:

- ◆ Planning and initiating projects
- ◆ Establishing temporary power during construction
- ◆ Establishing grounding systems
- ◆ Installing electrical service to buildings and other structures
- ◆ Establishing power distribution within a project
- ◆ Planning and installing raceway systems
- ◆ Installing new wiring and repairing old wiring
- ◆ Providing power and controls to motors, HVAC and other equipment
- ◆ Installing receptacles, lighting systems, and fixtures
- ◆ Troubleshooting and repairing electrical systems

- ◆ Installing and repairing traffic signals, outdoor lighting and outdoor power feeders
- ◆ Installing fire alarm systems

In performing these duties, Inside Wireman must use many different kinds of tools, ranging from simple one and two-handed tools (such as wire cutters, screwdrivers and cable-cutters) to power-assisted tools like electric drills and cable pullers. They occasionally operate heavy equipment such as trenchers and aerial lifts.

Over the course of the five year Inside Wiremen apprenticeship program, apprentices must acquire a wealth of technical knowledge. A recent job analysis identified 83 specific areas that are important for successful job performance. A few of the most important ones are knowledge of:

- ◆ The National Electrical Code
- ◆ How to work with energized circuits
- ◆ Blueprints, including symbols used
- ◆ Electrical schematic diagrams
- ◆ State and Local electrical codes
- ◆ First Aid
- ◆ Hazardous materials
- ◆ Specific job safety rules
